Management Comments (31/08/18)

August has been another turbulent month for financial markets. Added to the commercial war initiated by Trump against the world, the monetary crisis in Argentina worsened and, also, in Turkey. The Turkish Lira fell, in a single day, over 20% due to concerns regarding Erdogan's economic policies and his quarrels with the United States.

The fund has been affected by all these movements. The month has closed with a negative return of -3.79%. This important depreciation of emerging currencies and the increased uncertainty in general has specially affected the Swiss Franc and Dollar against the other currencies in the model, causing the drawdown in the fund, mainly through short positions with the Swiss Franc.
